

Israel at War – MDC Media update

November 30, 2023

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

In the eighth week of the war, Israel and Hamas agreed to a four-day "pause" in the fighting to exchange 50 Israeli hostages for 150 Palestinian prisoners. Between November 24 and November 27, four groups of Israeli hostages were released by Hamas. The deal was mediated by Qatar, Egypt, and the United States. After the four-day pause expired, a two-day extension was negotiated, which allowed for an exchange of two additional groups of hostages. On Thursday, November 30, it looks like there will be a third-day added to the initial four-day pause to return a seventh group of hostages, including the bodies of three Israelis. The pause has focused the Israeli public's attention on the diplomatic process that led to the release of the hostages, their treatment in captivity, and the fate of the remaining hostages being held in Gaza.

In our continued effort to keep you well-informed, please see the list below of media and public appearances by MDC researchers during the past week. We are continuing our efforts to analyze and explain the fluid developments in this conflict for the general public and our community of subscribers.
